EMPLOYMENT

University of Nevada, Las Vegas (Las Vegas, NV) Special Counsel to the President (5/1/16-present).

Responsibilities as Special Counsel to the President: Coordinate, with Kyle Kaalberg (Special Projects Director), the continued implementation of UNLV's strategic plan (Top Tier); serve as a member of the President's Cabinet; provide advice to the President. The Special Projects Director and the Interim Director of the Office of Community Engagement report to me.

Acting Executive Vice President & Provost (7/1/15-4/30/16).

Responsibilities as Acting Executive Vice President and Provost:

UNLV is a doctoral-degree-granting institution of more than 28,000 students and 2,900 faculty and staff. Founded in 1957, the university offers more than 220 undergraduate, masters, and doctoral degree programs and is classified in the category of Research Universities (high research activity) by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching. The deans (School of Allied Health Sciences, Lee Business School, School of Community Health Sciences, School of Dental Medicine, College of Education, Howard R. Hughes College of Engineering, College of Fine Arts, Graduate College, Honors College, William F. Harrah College of Hotel Administration, William S. Boyd School of Law, College of Liberal Arts, UNLV School of Medicine (co-reporting to the President), School of Nursing, College of Sciences, and Greenspun College of Urban Affairs), the Senior Vice Provost, the Vice Provost for Information Technology, the Assistant Vice President of Academic Resources, the Associate Vice Provost for the Office of Decision Support, and the Special Assistant to the EVP&P all report to me. As Provost, I also chair the board of directors of UNLV Singapore Ltd. UNLV is in the first stages of implementing its Top Tier plan, which is designed to achieve five pathway goals involving (1) research, scholarship, and creative activity; (2) student achievement; (3) an academic health center; (4) community partnerships, and (5) infrastructure and shared governance.

Significant accomplishments as Acting Executive Vice President and Provost:

Worked with President Jessup, two co-chairs of the Top Tier Plan, and the chairs and co-chairs of five committees, to implement year one of the Top Tier strategic plan; repaired relationships with the Faculty Senate; hired three new deans (Liberal Arts, Fine Arts, and Allied Health) and one acting dean (Sciences); reinstated the three-year dean review process; and provided more autonomy to the deans of schools and colleges; per request of the Chancellor of the Nevada System of Higher Education and the Chair of the Board of Regents, investigated two issues of concern (one each) for them.

Senior Advisor to the UNLV President (2014-2015) (member of UNLV Cabinet).

Significant accomplishments as Senior Advisor to the President:

Worked with former President Donald Snyder, with Jim Thomson (the Special Advisor to the President for Regional Development and also the former CEO of the RAND Corp.), with our consultants (Academic Leadership Associates), with Kyle Kaalberg (the Special Assistant to the President's Chief of Staff), with over 200 stakeholders inside and outside UNLV, and with current President Len Jessup to develop a strategic plan (the Top Tier Plan) for UNLV.

William S. Boyd School of Law, University of Nevada, Las Vegas (Las Vegas, NV) Garman Turner Gordon Professor of Law (July 1, 2007-present) (formerly Gordon Silver Professor of Law).

Affiliate Professor of Business Law and Ethics, Lee Business School (renewable; 2014-present).

Leadership Development Academy Coordinator (2013-2014); Co-Coordinator (2014-2015).

Co-Chair, Task Force on Scholarship, Lee Business School Strategic Planning Team (2014).

Interim Dean (2012-2013).

BERNARD BURK, STEVEN ALAN CHILDRESS, MICHAEL S. FRISCH, JULIA PORTER & NANCY B. RAPOPORT, ETHICAL LAWYERING IN REAL LIFE: MATERIALS AND PROBLEMS (Aspen Publishers / Wolters Kluwer, forthcoming 2018).

Teaching:

Basic Bankruptcy Law; Contracts; Professional Responsibility; Seminar on Enron and Other Corporate Scandals; Colloquium on Lawyers in Pop Culture; Business Law & Ethics.

Service:

Advisor to the NEVADA LAW JOURNAL and the UNLV GAMING LAW JOURNAL; UNLV Law's representative to the REYNOLDS COURTS & MEDIA LAW JOURNAL; Dean's Advisory Committee (2007-2008; 2008-2009; 2010-2011) (elected position); member of administration subcommittee of 2011-12 self-study.

Significant accomplishments as Interim Dean of Boyd School of Law:

Managed a budget of roughly $20 million; facilitated the conversion process for legal writing professors to move from long-term contracts to tenure-track positions and facilitated the hiring of two new tenure-track professors; raised funds for a stipend for the Director of the Saltman Center for Conflict Resolution; facilitated a faculty-staff annual giving program; facilitated the dissemination of the achievements of our faculty and staff with Boyd Briefs; systematized certain internal functions; acted as point person for the sabbatical visits of the American Bar Association and Association of American Law Schools; chaired the search for the Lee Business School Dean; facilitated a review of our curriculum to see whether we might be able to respond to changes in law practice and the new pressures on legal education; and facilitated various technological changes to make the internal workings of the school more stable.

The Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, the Associate Dean for Student Affairs, the Associate Dean for Administration and External Affairs, the Associate Dean for Faculty Development and Research, the Director of the Wiener-Rogers Law Library, the Director of Information Technology and the Budget Director all reported to me.

Honors:

Named "Dean of the Year" by Boyd law students in 2013.

University of Houston Law Center (Houston, TX)

Professor of Law (June 1, 2006-June 30, 2007).

Dean and Professor of Law (August 2000-May 31, 2006).

Responsibilities as Dean:

Managed all areas of Law Center life; served as primary external spokesperson for the Law Center; facilitated internal programs of the Law Center; raised public and private funds for the Law Center; highlighted the University's and Law Center's programs in discussions with various Texas legislators; and served the state of Texas as CEO of the state's premier urban, public law school. As Dean, taught one course per year.

The Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, the Associate Dean for Student Affairs, the Director of the O'Quinn Law Library, the Associate Dean for Information Technology, the Associate Dean for Finance and Administration and Chief Operating Officer of the Law Foundation, the Associate Dean for External Affairs and Executive Director of the Law Foundation, and the Director of CLE all reported directly to me.

Significant accomplishments as Dean:

Facilitated the establishment of several new centers, programs, and institutes, including the Criminal Justice Institute, the Institute for Energy, Law & Enterprise (now the Program In Energy, Environment & Natural Resources), and the Center for Consumer Law; reinvigorated the Blakely Advocacy Institute (BAI) and acquired the A.A. White Center for Dispute Resolution as part of the BAI; encouraged the first major revamping of the Law Center's curriculum in twenty years; hired fourteen new faculty members (three of which hold endowed chairs at the Law Center); presided over a record increase in the amount and size of gifts to the Law Center, even during a downturn in the economy. Raised seven new Law Center professorships, in partnership with a special campaign of the University of Houston, in under two months. Facilitated the Law Center's recovery from the devastation caused by Tropical Storm Allison on June 9, 2001, which poured over 12 feet of water into the Law Center's sub-basement and destroyed much of its library collection (over 175,000 volumes and 1,000,000 microfiche lost) as well as much of its facilities.

University of Nebraska College of Law (Lincoln, NE)
Dean and Professor of Law (July 1998-August 2000).

Responsibilities as Dean:

CEO of Nebraska's land-grant law school. 1999-2000 state budget for the Law College (excluding the Schmid Law Library) was approximately $3.5 million; 1998-1999 private funds had a market value of approximately $35.5 million and a book value of approximately $15.9 million. The Associate Dean, the Assistant Dean for Administration and Student Services, the Assistant Dean for Career Services and Alumni Relations, the Director of the Law Library, the Director of Development, the Office Manager, and the Acting Head of the Nebraska Institute for Technology in the Practice of Law all reported directly to me.

Significant accomplishments as Dean:

Instituted the creation of a new Access database to enable all Law College administrative units to organize and share information; encouraged the establishment of new student organizations (including an organization for law students who prefer non-traditional career paths and a GLBT student organization); encouraged the development of a link between an undergraduate “learning community” and the Law College; helped to organize a campus-wide cross-disciplinary ethics initiative; instituted systems facilitating the scheduling of Law College events, the timely review of employees, and the cultivation and stewardship of donors; initiated the design of the new “image” of the Law College; revamped the furnishings of the student lounge (at zero cost to the Law College); and raised significant funds for such needs as scholarships and professorships. I was the point person for completing the fund-raising for, and coordinating the design and construction of, the planned addition to the Schmid Law Library. I also taught at least one course a year, including Sales, Images of Lawyers in Film, and the Skills course for first-year law students; I supervised several independent studies; and I maintained an active research agenda in my areas of professional responsibility and bankruptcy ethics.

Service:
